“Centerfolds of Magic,” the first Las Vegas show starring all-female topless magicians, to open at the Plaza Hotel & Casino on May 1

LAS VEGAS (April 15, 2013) - The Plaza Hotel & Casino announces that “Centerfolds of Magic” will open in the Plaza’s showroom on May 1.

“Centerfolds of Magic,” the first topless ensemble of all-female magicians, will perform six nights a week at 11 p.m. (dark on Thursdays). This late-night adult cabaret, directed by John Lewis and produced by Levinson, Lewis & Gillespie, is a blend of award-winning illusions, talented and sexy female magicians, contemporary choreography, and hilarious original comedy.

Show production numbers will incorporate original music drawing on the rhythms of bands like Imagine Dragons, OneRepublic, Neon Trees, Maroon 5 and Train. Mic Thompson’s innovative choreography will highlight the women, magic and mystery, while designer Brunie created the show’s exotic costumes.

Taya Parker, 2009 “Penthouse Pet of the Year” and eight-time Penthouse Magazine cover girl, will host and perform in “Centerfolds of Magic.” The most-published Penthouse Pet in history, she has also graced the pages of Playboy. Parker has also performed to rave reviews in Las Vegas at the Orleans, Hard Rock, Stardust and Sahara hotel-casinos.

The show’s producers said Parker and four stunning female entertainers will dazzle audiences, performing such feats of magic as: legendary illusionist Doug Henning’s “Bumps In the Night;” sawing a lady in two in a clear box; a wild and crazy performance with Jekyll and Hyde in bondage; Sexy Zombies disappearing and reappearing on stage; and famed magician Harry Houdini’s frightening water substitution. The “Centerfolds of Magic Door” will also “magically” reveal a different celebrity each night to the audience.

In addition, the show will open with the award-winning antics of comedian Joe Trammel, the “TV Guy.” Trammel has performed as a headliner in Las Vegas and on multiple television specials. Wayne Newton described Trammel as being “one of the most talented and incredible entertainers he has ever met.” The popular comedian recently worked as a comedy coach and performer on VH1’s “The Surreal Life’s Fame Games,” hosted by Robin Leach.

Ticket prices range from $49 to $69, and customers must be 18 years of age or older. Tickets can be purchased at the Plaza’s box office or online at www.plazahotelcasino.com.

About the Plaza Hotel & Casino

The Plaza Hotel & Casino opened in 1971 at 1 Main Street, at the intersection of Main and Fremont Street, and was a fashionable stop on the first train service through Las Vegas. Anchoring the Fremont Street Experience, the Plaza has been an iconic hotel in the heart of downtown Las Vegas for more than 40 years. It sits on 16.5 acres of land and has more than 1,000 rooms and suites, making it one of the largest hotel-casinos in downtown Las Vegas. Renovations have updated and improved the Plaza’s ambiance throughout, creating a stylish and comfortable new experience for its guests. It has earned it the distinction of being named “Best Downtown Hotel” by the Las Vegas Review-Journal. For more information and reservations: <http://www.plazahotelcasino.com>.
