Plaza Hotel and Casino to host job fair for Oscar's steakhouse and Simpatico, an Italian speakeasy and grill

LAS VEGAS (Nov. 9, 2011) – A job fair will be held for numerous positions available at Oscar's, the new steakhouse opening later this year in the Plaza Hotel and Casino's iconic dome as well as Simpatico, an Italian speakeasy and grill, which will be adjacent to the steakhouse.

The job fair will be held Wednesday, Nov. 16, through Friday, Nov. 18, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. on the third floor of the nearby Las Vegas Club Hotel and Casino.

The new restaurants will be hiring for more than two dozen positions, including food servers, bartenders, hostesses, and bar porters.

All interested job applicants should complete an application online at www.plazahotelcasino.com before attending the job fair. Applicants from the Plaza's initial job fair earlier this summer will also be considered for the open positions and do not need to re-apply.

Expected to open in December, Oscar's, named after former Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman, will carry the tagline "Beef · Booze · Broads" and will pair a great meal with the unique opportunity to have one of Oscar's "Broads" visit with customers during dinner. These attractive women will be reminiscent of the iconic showgirls who accompanied the former mayor to events during his tenure.

The "Broads" will be selected through a separate audition process, with Goodman taking an active role in developing his new restaurant and presiding over the auditions. A total of six "Broads" are expected to be selected for the new restaurant.

Talented entertainers are welcome to audition for the role. The open "Broad-casting" call is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 17, from noon until 3 p.m., and Saturday, Nov. 19, from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m., inside the Plaza's showroom off of the casino floor.

Like the other restaurant positions, full job descriptions for the "Broads" can be found at www.plazahotelcasino.com. Interested applicants should apply online before attending the audition.
