Oscar's steakhouse announces Valentine's Day specials

LAS VEGAS (Jan. 30, 2012) – Lovers of Las Vegas – locals and tourists alike – have a new place to celebrate Valentine's Day.

It's Oscar's steakhouse at the Plaza Hotel and Casino, the home away from home of one of the city's most beloved and colorful leaders, former Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman.

Oscar's Beef • Booze • Broads, which opened in December in the Plaza's iconic dome overlooking Fremont Street, is celebrating its first Valentine's Day by offering a special three-course menu for couples who dine there Feb. 14.

The meal starts with a flavorful mixed green salad with poached golden and red baby beets and Champagne vinaigrette. Diners then have the choice for their entrée from a traditional Chateaubriand for two with roasted potatoes and seasonal vegetables or an herb crusted rack of lamb with mint Bordelaise sauce. Couples can end their evening on an indulgent note with a luscious chocolate lava cake or succulent chocolate-covered strawberries.

In addition, Simpatico, the adjacent Italian Speakeasy and Grill, will offer a cozy, Italian-inspired meal beginning with mussels marinara. Entrée selections include Lobster Fra Diablo or Bracirole filled with pine nut, spinach and red peppers with a demi glaze. And like couples at Oscar's, diners at Simpatico can select from either chocolate lava cake or chocolate-covered strawberries for dessert.

Couples can enjoy delicious, hand-crafted cocktails at Oscar's and Simpatico, as well as a diverse wine list, including Champagne, to toast their special evening.

The three-course meal at Oscar's is $120 per couple, and the Italian dinner at Simpatico is $80 per couple. Reservations are highly recommended and can be made by calling 702-38-OSCAR or 702-386-7227.
