Oscar's steakhouse debuts new dinner menu tomorrow, Feb. 7

LAS VEGAS – Known for its perfectly aged steaks and a menu that pays homage to family members and past clients of its namesake former Las Vegas Mayor Oscar B. Goodman, Oscar's steakhouse inside the iconic glass dome at the Plaza Hotel & Casino has added to its menu new appetizers and entrées.

Debuting tomorrow, Feb. 7, the new menu includes two new appetizers and three new entrées, one of which was often offered as a special but will now be a regular menu option.

The shareable appetizer list now includes “Fat Herbie’s Tuna Poke Stack,” an Ahi poke layered with avocado and ginger, and an “Artichoke Au Gratin,” made with marinated artichokes, manchego cheese and lemon sauce.

Three new entrees were also added to the menu. A lamb chop with herb chimichurri sauce and a bone-in ribeye, previously just a special, both have been added as permanent selections on the menu. In addition, the dinner menu adds a vegetarian entrée option with a grilled vegetable lasagna featuring a sundried tomato marinara and fresh mozzarella. French fries have also been added as a side dish option.

The new dinner menu in its entirety will be available online at <http://www.oscarslv.com/menu/dinner/>. Reservations are encouraged for dinner by calling 702-38-OSCAR (386-7227) or online at www.oscarslv.com.
