A special Oscar Dinner Series on the 85th anniversary of Repeal Day, Dec. 5: “From Mob Lawyer to Mayor of Las Vegas, A Retrospective”

LAS VEGAS – To celebrate the seven-year anniversary of Oscar's Steakhouse at the Plaza Hotel & Casino and the 85th anniversary of Repeal Day, which marks the end of Prohibition, the Oscar Dinner Series will be held inside the restaurant's iconic glass dome on a special night and time, Wednesday, Dec. 5 at 6 p.m.

The Oscar Dinner Series brings historic Vegas to life through the tales of former city of Las Vegas Mayor and mob attorney, Oscar B. Goodman. In this anniversary edition held on Repeal Day, one of Goodman's favorite holidays, Goodman will recount his journey from mob lawyer to mayor, the unique individuals he encountered and the historic happenings that occurred along the way.

The special dinner will start with an extended cocktail hour from 6 to 7 p.m. in the lounge featuring live entertainment. Guests will then join Goodman inside the dome overlooking the lights of Fremont Street for a three-course meal of Goodman's "hit list" of his favorite dishes paired with red and white wines as well as the signature Oscar Goodman Martini.

For the first time, Oscar's Steakhouse will close for the evening to host this special dinner in the dome, offering more seats and reservation options for groups and individuals alike. From groups of ten to a table for two, everyone is welcome to this rare opportunity to gain insight on how the legendary Goodman went "from mob lawyer to mayor" as he reflects on his life and how his extraordinary experiences shaped him and the history of Las Vegas.
