Inspired by recent events, next Oscar's Dinner Series on June 29 Former attorney to Tony Spilotro to discuss bodies found in Lake Mead and more

LAS VEGAS – Inspired by recent events, former Las Vegas Mayor and mob attorney, Oscar B. Goodman will hold a special edition of the Oscar's Dinner Series entitled "Roll Out the Barrels, Same Old Crap, Tony Did It," at Oscar's Steakhouse at the Plaza Hotel & Casino on Wednesday, June 29, with cocktails in the lounge at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m. in the restaurant's iconic glass dome overlooking the lights of Fremont Street.

Only-in-Vegas dinner events, the Oscar's Dinner Series is held throughout the year and brings historic Vegas to life through the tales of former city of Las Vegas Mayor and mob attorney, Oscar B. Goodman.

The June 29th dinner will be a three-course plated meal paired with red and white wines as well as the signature Oscar Goodman Martini. The dinner menu, created by acclaimed Chef Ben Jenkins, offers a choice of a Caesar salad or white asparagus soup for the first course followed by either filet mignon with royale trumpet or branzino with cipollini onion, both served with a selection of seasonal sides for the second course. The dinner concludes with a decadent desert sampler.

Guests can book tables for parties of two people ($300), four ($600) and six ($900). Prices do not include fees, taxes, or gratuity. Tickets are now on sale at <http://plazahotelcasino.com/dinner-series>.

About Oscar's steakhouse

Named after former Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman, Oscar's steakhouse is a glamorous and uniquely Las Vegas steakhouse inside the iconic dome of the Plaza Hotel and Casino that overlooks the lights of Fremont Street and downtown Las Vegas. Oscar's features perfectly aged steaks cooked over a 600-degree grill and accompanied by high-quality, made-from-scratch sides. Oscar's also offers a wide variety of delicious, hand-crafted cocktails, including martinis, the former mayor's signature drink.
